

Commas and quotation marks

Grade 4 Punctuation Worksheet

Commas always go inside the quotation marks.

“Eat your peas,” mom said, “or there will be no dessert!”

Rewrite the sentences inserting commas where needed.

1. “You have all done an outstanding job on your tests” the teacher said.

2. “Complete your homework” my mom exclaimed “then you can tidy your bedroom.”

3. “If you want to master an instrument, you have to practice” said Mr. Smith.

4. This summer, my favorite songs were “Sunflower” “High Hopes” and “The Middle.”

5. Mrs. Carter made us read three poems including “Good Bones” “The Red Wheelbarrow” and “Sick.”

6. “Let’s congratulate Steve” exclaimed Coach Mike “for hitting three home runs.”

7. “The Game” “The Dance” and “Spring Break” are the chapters we need to read for homework.

8. “If you drive quickly, we can make it to school on time” I said to my dad.

Commas and quotation marks

Grade 4 Punctuation Worksheet

Answers

1. "You have all done an outstanding job on your tests" the teacher said.
"You have all done an outstanding job on your tests," the teacher said.
2. "Complete your homework" my mom exclaimed "then you can tidy your bedroom."
"Complete your homework," my mom exclaimed, " then you can tidy your bedroom."
3. "If you want to master an instrument, you have to practice" said Mr. Smith.
"If you want to master an instrument, you have to practice," said Mr. Smith.
4. This summer, my favorite songs were "Sunflower" "High Hopes" and "The Middle."
This summer, my favorite songs were "Sunflower," "High Hopes," and "The Middle."
5. Mrs. Carter made us read three poems including "Good Bones" "The Red Wheelbarrow" and "Sick."
Mrs. Carter made us read three poems including "Good Bones," "The Red Wheelbarrow," and "Sick."
6. "Let's congratulate Steve" exclaimed Coach Mike "for hitting three home runs."
"Let's congratulate Steve," exclaimed Coach Mike, "for hitting three home runs."
7. "The Game" "The Dance" and "Spring Break" are the chapters we need to read for homework.
"The Game," "The Dance," and "Spring Break" are the chapters we need to read for homework.
8. "If you drive quickly, we can make it to school on time" I said to my dad.
"If you drive quickly, we can make it to school on time," I said to my dad.