

Interjections and punctuation

Grade 5 Interjections Worksheet

Circle the interjection in each sentence.
Circle mild or strong to identify the type of interjection.

- strong 1. Wow! What an awesome painting!
- _____ 2. Yes, we can come to the party tonight.
- _____ 3. Hello! How are you?
- _____ 4. Goodness! That was a very long speech!
- _____ 5. Well, you look very handsome this evening.
- _____ 6. Alas, we had to make a very tough decision.
- _____ 7. No! You cannot run around the house and chase your brother!
- _____ 8. Great! I've always wanted to visit this restaurant!

Mild interjections show little emotion and are separated from the sentence with a comma.

Yeah, you can borrow my bike.

Strong interjections show a lot of emotion and are separated from the sentence with an exclamation mark.

Yippee! I won a bike!

Write a sentence using a mild interjection.

Write a sentence using a strong interjection.

Interjections and punctuation

Grade 5 Interjections Worksheet

Answers

- strong 1. Wow! What an awesome painting!
- mild 2. Yes, we can come to the party tonight.
- strong 3. Hello! How are you?
- strong 4. Goodness! That was a very long speech!
- mild 5. Well, you look very handsome this evening.
- mild 6. Alas, we had to make a very tough decision.
- strong 7. No! You cannot run around the house and chase your brother!
- strong 8. Great! I've always wanted to visit this restaurant!

Answers will vary

Write a sentence using a mild interjection.

Well, that was an interesting statement.

Write a sentence using a strong interjection.

Yikes! That was scary!