

Be calm, find Max

Kindergarten Social & Emotional Learning Worksheets

Read the story and answer the questions.

Salvador took his dog Max to the backyard to play. Soon, Salvador couldn't see Max. He called the dog, but Max did not come. Salvador's heart started racing. He sat down on the ground and started crying. The dog ran around the corner and licked Salvador on the face.

Questions

1. What was the problem in the story?
 - a. Salvador's dog was digging in the yard.
 - b. Salvador did not want to play with his dog.
 - c. Salvador could not find his dog.

2. What could Salvador have done to solve his problem?
 - a. Scream for his mom to come and look for the dog.
 - b. Go into his room and cry.
 - c. Calmly walk around the yard to look for his dog.

3. When you have a problem, is it better to be calm or excited? Why?

Answers

1. What was the problem in the story?

c. Salvador could not find his dog.

2. What could Salvador have done to solve his problem?

c. Calmly walk around the yard to look for his dog.

3. When you have a problem, is it better to be calm or excited? Why?

Answers will vary.