Separating names

Grade 2 Capitalization Worksheet
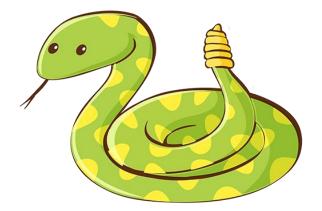

Rewrite each sentence and put commas where needed around the names.

> If a name is at the beginning of the sentence, put a comma after it.
> Grandpa, let's eat!
>
> If a name is at the end of the sentence, put a comma before it.
> Let's eat, Grandpa!
>
> If a name is in the middle of the sentence, put commas on either side of it.
> Let's eat, Grandpa, if that's okay.

1. Jacob did you close the cage's door?

   _____

   _____

   _____

2. I'm afraid Mom that the snake got out!

   _____

   _____

   _____

3. My snake Cuddles is loose in the house.

4. Brian you better lock your door tonight!

5. It's going to be hard to catch him Jacob.

6. Cuddles please come back!

Answers

1. Jacob did you close the cage's door?

    Jacob, did you close the cage's door?

2. I'm afraid Mom that the snake got out!

    I'm afraid, Mom, that the snake got out!

3. My snake Cuddles is loose in the house.

    My snake, Cuddles, is loose in the house.

4. Brian you better lock your door tonight!

    Brian, you better lock your door tonight!

5. It's going to be hard to catch him Jacob.

    It's going to be hard to catch him, Jacob.

6. Cuddles please come back!

    Cuddles, please come back!